

Quality Policy

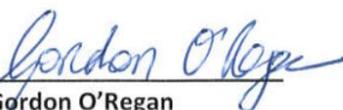

L&M Keating Ltd. is a Building and Civil Engineering Contractor based in Kilmihil, Co. Clare, Ireland, providing a range of engineering services to both public and private organisations, including government departments, Local Authorities, large property development companies, private companies and architects.

L&M Keating Ltd. recognises that the disciplines of quality, health and safety and environmental management are an integral part of its management function. The organisation views these disciplines as a primary responsibility and to be the key to good business in adopting appropriate quality standards.

L&M Keating Ltd. are committed to continual improvement in its quality management activities and our business will be conducted with the aim of meeting and exceeding customer requirements.

We will strive to: -

- Comply with all applicable laws, regulations, standards and codes of practice.
- Follow a concept of continual improvement and customer focus to make best use of the organisation's resources in all quality matters.
- Quality objectives shall be set and reviewed to ensure that customer needs are being met and these will be communicated throughout the organisation and to interested parties.
- Take due care to ensure that activities are safe for employees, associates and subcontractors and others who come into contact with our work.
- Work closely with our customers and suppliers to establish the highest quality standards.
- Ensure that our quality policy remains appropriate to the purpose of the organisation and that it is reviewed for continuing suitability.
- Adopt a forward-looking view on future business plans, which may have an impact on quality objectives.
- Train our staff in the needs and responsibilities of quality management.
- Continue to invest in the training of all staff and Directors so that they maintain continuous professional development to ensure that our skills base is developed with up-to-date knowledge and current best practice in the industry.
